MORNING RETREAT MONDAY TO FRIDAY

8:00 – 8:45 A.M.

CHINESE YOGA – DAO YIN

Dao Yin exercises are over 3000 years old and are used to open the muscles, joints and energy channels (meridians). Dao Yin translates as directing and stretching. These exercises lead to flexibility and suppleness of the body. In the Daoist teachings, this is described as follows: „Remain supple and flexible like a baby because hardness and stiffness are companions of death“.

8:45 – 9:00 A.M.

Break

9:00 – 9:45 A.M.

TAIJIQUAN

The application of the highest harmony is called Taijiquan. Taiji (supreme harmony) exists when yin and yang are equal. Practitioners experience this principle in the exercises of Taijiquan. The slow and harmonious movements unite up-down, right-left and inside-out. Taijiquan is actually Kung Fu in origin and belongs to the Chinese internal martial arts and can also be used for self-defence.

9:45 – 10:00 A.M.

MEDITATION

The calm, immobile engagement with our mind is called meditation. This is the highest level and leads to deep inner realisations. Who am I, what is the meaning of life, why do I not have my thoughts under control or how can I stop my thoughts can be resolved through meditation.

10:00 – 11:00 A.M.

Gourmet breakfast - help yourself in the outdoor kitchen area

EVENING RETREAT MONDAY TO FRIDAY

- 06:00 – 06:45 P.M. NEI GONG - ENERGY EXERCISES
Nei Gong exercises increase our energy potential. More energy means being less tired for everyday tasks, but also no stress. Stress only ever develops when things become too much, you quickly reach your limits. Inclination is a good way to counteract this.
- 06:45 – 07:00 P.M. BREAK / WALKING MEDITATION
This type of meditation teaches us in action (movement) to keep our thoughts calm and composed. In everyday life, we are always on the move. It is therefore helpful to master this type of meditation. Here we practise not getting off centre despite movement.
- 07:15 – 08:00 P.M. QI GONG
Exercises with the life energy is the translation of Qi Gong. The effect of Qi Gong is to become healthy, stay healthy, vitality and longevity. If our life energy can flow freely, we are free from pain and illness. These ancient energy exercises have an equal effect on the body, energy and mind. Only when these three human treasures (body, energy and mind) are free can we realise our full human potential.
- 08:00 – 09:00 P.M. Dinner
- FRIDAY, 09/20/2024 End the day and socialise by the Zen Zone fire
- SATURDAY, 09/21/2024 After the morning retreat and breakfast, the participants have DEPARTURE DAY time at leisure, or for final treatments.
- NOON – 01:00 PM Farewell
- approx. 01:00 PM Departure to the airport

ORGANISED TOURS

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

RASTOKE – a charming village in Croatia, located at the confluence of the Slunjčica and Korana rivers. Known for its picturesque waterfalls, old mills and charming wooden houses, Rastoke offers an idyllic setting with lush nature. Visitors can stroll along the well-preserved wooden walkways and admire the small waterfalls that cascade between the old mills and traditional houses. The vibrant mix of nature and cultural heritage makes Rastoke a unique destination that captures the beauty of the Croatian landscape in a charming way.

<https://rastoke-croatia.com/sightseeing/>

This year, the World Tourism Organisation (UNWTO) included Slunj/Rastoke in its list of the world's best tourism villages because it is an outstanding rural destination with recognised cultural and natural treasures, a commitment to preserving community-based values and a clear commitment to innovation and sustainability in economic, social and environmental terms.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

PLITVICE LAKES National Park World Heritage Site

The Plitvice Lakes National Park in Croatia is known for its breathtaking waterfalls, emerald green lakes and lush forests. The UNESCO World Heritage Site offers visitors a network of boardwalks and hiking trails that lead through the picturesque landscape. The 16 interconnected lakes and numerous waterfalls create an impressive backdrop for nature lovers and photographers. The park is home to a wide variety of flora and fauna, making it a unique destination.

There is enough time in the afternoon for programme B (duration 3 - 4 hours; route length 4 km): Route B starts at the northern entrance to the park („Entrance 1“). The tour takes place in a circle and includes a walk through the limestone canyon of the „Lower Lakes“, an electric boat ride on the largest Plitvice Lake - „Kozjak“, a ride on the panoramic train and a walk along the eastern side of the Canyon to the starting point at „Entrance 1“. Within the programme you will see the spectacular large waterfall „Veliki slap“ and „Sastavke“, the beautiful blue-green lakes „Novakovića brod“, „Kaludžerovac“, „Gavanovac“ and „Milanovac“, as well as the vastness of the lake „Kozjak“.

FRIDAY

KAYAKING AT THE MREŽNICA WATERFALL

The Mrežnica River is considered one of the most beautiful in Europe and is also known as the „playground of waterfalls“. It flows away from the main tourist attractions and stretches between the village of Rastoke and the Plitvice Lakes National Park. The river landscape is characterised by a dense forest environment and cliff-lined gorges.

Access to the waterfalls along the river is often only possible by kayak, which gives the place a natural and unspoilt atmosphere. The source of the river, about 12 kilometres upstream, provides clear drinking water. The Mrežnica Gorge offers an impressive backdrop with dense forest, gently flowing rapids and calm waterfalls. During this tour along the Mrežnica River, participants have the opportunity to explore 10 waterfalls. The brave can jump into the water from different heights, between 1 and 8 metres. For the less adventurous, there is the option of swimming behind the waterfalls, travelling behind them in a kayak or paddling behind them at a leisurely pace. The tour also includes a break for a picnic in the middle of nature (we recommend bringing sandwiches or snacks and drinks). Afterwards we swim in the clear green-blue water of the river.

At the Shaolin Wahnam Institute in Frankfurt, Sifu Kai Uwe Jettkandt teaches 70 Kung Fu, 40 Taiji and around 300 Qi Gong students.

... BUT LET'S LET HIM HAVE HIS SAY:

„At the age of 17, I began my journey into the world of martial arts to learn self-defence. I chose Ju Jutsu as it offered everything I was looking for at the time. At the age of 19, I became the youngest Dan (black belt) holder of the association in Germany. This marked the beginning of my time in competition with over 150 fights and the winning of national and international championships, during which time Kung Fu also reached its peak in Western countries. Eastern films about Shaolin and music groups such as Grandmaster Flash were created as a tribute to Kung Fu, and songs such as „Everybody is Kung Fu Fighting“ inspired me at this time. I was fascinated by the wisdom transmitted by the old masters in this genre. I decided to embark on a journey to the East to find such a master. The journey took five years, and if it had been up to my parents or friends, I would never have set out on it. But my dream and my vision were so strong that no one could stop me.

I travelled to Beijing on the Trans-Siberian Railway and from there to the Shaolin Monastery. When I arrived at the monastery in 1984, I was shocked by what I saw. There was none of the splendour of the films, more like half a ruin. A few monks looked after the monastery so that it didn't fall into complete disrepair. Outside the monastery, a few people were teaching kung fu, they were all from the area around the monastery. I trained with them for 14 days, guided by an old monk, but the training was not what I was looking for. So I decided to move on.

I travelled from kung fu school to kung fu school in China, but there was no wise master as I imagined him to be. A kung fu master explained to me that he would only teach me his secrets once I had mastered acupuncture. That way I would show that I had a good heart before he taught me the dim mak (death blow). I then learnt acupuncture at a university in Chengdu where, for the first time, classes for foreigners were offered in English. I could only study there for one semester as my 12-month visa expired. That was my path from martial arts to the healing arts. I then completed my acupuncture training in Germany.

I travelled through Asia for another four years to further my training in martial arts. In the different countries I learnt and mastered their martial arts and back in Germany I was a different person; my heart told me to use the power (Qi) I had learnt for the benefit of others. For over 25 years, my established Anicca Practice - Traditional Chinese Medicine in Frankfurt, Germany, has been well known and many international patients have travelled a long way. I now accept invitations to seminars and healing sessions all over the world to bring my knowledge and skills to many people.“
